

LID CLAMPS AT MIDNIGHT, SAYS PULLMAN

Police Department Imposes
Strict Observance of New Liquor Law.

That all saloons must close their doors promptly at midnight Wednesday night, the prohibiting of boyish pranks on the streets this night, and the calling out of an extra large number of policemen for patrol duty, are the prominent features in an official bulletin issued last night to the captains of the different precincts by Maj. Raymond W. Pullman, superintendent of police.

The bulletin reads in part: "There may be some saloonkeepers who may be under the impression that they can keep open until 1 o'clock Thursday morning. This, of course, is a mistake. All saloons must be closed promptly at midnight Wednesday. Under no circumstances shall any sale of intoxicating liquors be made after midnight."

Prohibits Halloween Pranks.
"The police also will not permit ugly pranks of boys, especially those of the older years, in order that persons may be kept free from insult and property free from damage and destruction."

In order that the largest possible number of police may be on duty throughout the city Wednesday night you will excuse one-half of the section which comes on duty at 8 o'clock in the morning for the entire 24-hour tour of duty and require them to report at 8:30 o'clock in the evening for street duty, working a tour running until 1:30 o'clock."

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If Tongue Is Coated
Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomachache, diarrhea, indigestion, colic, remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company,"—Adv.

German Pillagers Rob French Village of Historic Relics

This picture is proof that Germans are not satisfied with stealing from French villages food, clothing, and fuel, but take such historic relics as this statue, one which had marked this spot for decades. The metal statue went to swell the pillagers' dwindling supply of munitions. A German soldier captured in battle had this photograph in his pocket.

'SNUFFY THE CABMAN' DISCUSSES BASEBALL

Dave Marion Delights Audience with Reminiscence of 1888.

DAVE MARION.

Dave Marion, one of the best-known eccentric comedians, and the first man to give to the public a clean burlesque at the Gaiety this week as "Snuffy the cabman." Yesterday afternoon just before the matinee he discussed baseball as played in 1888 and the songs of yesterday.

Wherever the English language is spoken Dave Marion is known in this character he has made famous England, Ireland, Scotland, Australia, India and British South Africa are a few of the many places where "Snuffy" has brought smiles and driven dull care away with comical antics and funny sayings.

When a baseball team first toured the world in 1888 under the late A. G. Spalding, Dave Marion was engaged to keep the boys in good humor. The trip made Marion and it was during this time that he wrote his first sentimental ballad, "Only One Girl in the World for Me," which became an instantaneous success.

But of all of the songs that he has written his greatest is the one that he has just written called "You, You, You," a song that will be heard in the first line trench in France to the four corners of the globe, a song that is a real rival of Cohen's "Over There."

Dave Marion is a man of a high order of intelligence, with a keen sense of humor. He is a plain, clean-living gentleman, and happily married to a charming member of his company.

Friede was manifest, indeed, when he displayed the photograph of his son, who has joined the army and is at present at Fort Meyer.

Dave Marion is appearing in "The World Follies," a musical melodrama which has twenty-one scenes.

'TRIANGLE' FIGURES IN DIVORCE ACTION

Della F. Burt Enters Suit Against Husband in Local Court.

The "eternal triangle" figures prominently in the suit for maintenance filed in the District Supreme Court by Della F. Burt against Arthur M. Burt, employed in the Indian Office of the government.

The couple were married in Lowell, Mass., June 2, 1896. In June, 1903, the husband secured a position in the Treasury Department and brought his wife to this city.

He admitted to her, she avers, that he loved another woman and was anxious to obtain his freedom so as to be able to marry her.

The other woman in the case, the wife states, admitted to her also that she loved the husband. In August, 1916, the husband was transferred to the Indian Office and while traveling for the government, she avers, he filed suit for divorce against her in Nevada.

He asked her, she states, to let this suit go by default, but she refused. His salary, she avers, is $7,750 a year. Justice Siddons signed an order requiring the husband to furnish a $1,000 bond not to leave this jurisdiction until some settlement of the case is made.

"Blue" Spells Likely Mean Bad Kidneys

If you are nervous, cross and "blue" all the time, there is surely some cause for it.

The strain of family worries and housework often causes kidney troubles, and when the kidneys are weak, the nerves are easily affected.

Women who are tired and half-sick, who have backache, neuralgia, headache, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains and disorders of the kidneys and bladder, should use Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands of women praise them for quick relief from just such trouble.

These Washington Women Speak:

Mrs. B. V. Moran, 25 M St. S. E., says: "I suffered constantly from dull pains across the small of my back. I couldn't stand up very long at a time before I had to sit down in order to ease the pain in my back. I felt tired all the time and was so nervous I could do nothing. My kidneys were weak. I couldn't sleep well and when morning came I felt more tired than when I went to bed. After I had taken a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, I began to feel more like myself again. My back was less painful and my kidneys acted normally. I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since and I consider myself cured."

Mrs. A. King, 121 W St. S. E., says: "I was all crippled up with rheumatic twinges and other symptoms of disordered kidneys a year ago. I had cutting pains in my back, when stooping or walking and I had rheumatic twinges all over my body. I was very nervous and could hardly keep still at times. I had headaches and was troubled by shortness of breath. Doan's Kidney Pills had been taken by one of the family with success and I used them. Two boxes relieved me, too."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere. Get the genuine, made by "Doan's Kidney Pills,"—Adv.

HOME DEFENSE MEN WANT ARMY RIFLES

Col. Winter Devises Plan to Equip
Prize Company.

Col. M. A. Winter, commanding the Home Defense League Rifles, in his announcement of the twelfth regular weekly drills for the organization, states that Lieut. Col. E. P. Hasleton has been instructed to recommend the company that will first receive rifles for use in the manual of arms. This would seem to indicate that there is a fair prospect of the Home Rifles being equipped by degrees with a supply of the necessary arms.

Companies D and G have been consolidated into a new company to be known hereafter as Company G, with Thomas J. Gates as captain. No other changes are noted in the schedule of drills, they being routine in character henceforth.

With regard to rifle practice, Companies C and L are privileged to shoot for qualification at the small-bore indoor range under the Capitol on the days and hours arranged for by Capt. Roger L. Calvert, of Company C. The latter is composed of attaches of the United States Senate.

Companies S, W and Y, the two former made up from employees of the Washington Terminal Company, and the latter from employees of the Southern Railroad Company, are privileged to shoot for qualification at the rifle range on the top floor of Union Station on any day except Sunday at any hour of the day or night.

Shall We Stand by France in her Appeal for Sugar?

War has so reduced Europe's supply of sugar that the Allies are in actual need of this indispensable food.

America is appealed to—we are asked to use sugar sparingly, so that the people of France in particular may have some.

England, France and the United States are working in accord to conserve the sugar supply. The present conditions are only temporary, for it is expected that when new supplies come from Cuba and other tropical countries, sugar will be more plentiful and ample for our needs.

The people of the New England and the Atlantic Coast States can do a patriotic service by saving sugar. They should not hoard or waste it.

Do not pay an increased retail price.
